It was reported last night that Mr. Lloyd Ashurst's house on the Clintonville pike was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock.

The personal property of Mrs. Hezekiah Kinder, formerly Mrs. Henry Butler, Sr., will be sold at her residence to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

TALK to T. Porter Smith about fire insurance.

The survivors of the Seventh Kentucky Cavalry and the Eighteenth Kentucky Infantry will hold a reunion on October 2d and 3d at Carlisle.

LEGAL holidays in Kentucky are Jan. 1, Feb. 22, May 30, 1st Monday in September as Labor day, Thanksgiving day, General Election day, and Dec. 25.

SELBY LILLESTON has sold the vacant lot adjoining J. C. Elgin, on Seventh street, to Mrs. Laura Lary, of Scott County. Price paid, $575. Mrs. Lary will build a residence.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, the famous negro leader, has accepted an invitation to visit Lexington this fall, which was extended to him by the Negro Business Men's League, of Lexington and Fayette County.

Among the Republican candidates selected by Collector Sapp, in Louisville is Dr. Louis Frank, formerly of this city for the office of school trustee. Dr. Frank wisely declined to make the race.

A PERMIT was granted to N. Ford Brent, of Paris, to erect a building on the lot back of Cal Darnall's warehouse, in Carlisle. Mr. Brent will use the building for the slaughtering and dressing of turkeys.

MISS MARION TENLEY, one of the principal members of the Odeon Company, is the sister of the late Hugh Tenley, who was one of the members of the famous Paris Base Ball Club. Others are Edna Marsh, Blanche Stern, C. J. McCullough and Charles Osler.

THE Harrison Circuit Court convened Monday at Cynthiana and in the absence of Judge Hanson Kennedy, who is at Boulder Col. for his health, the bar elected Mr. J. Irvine Blanton, formerly of this city, special Judge. Two murder trials are on the docket.

A NEW COAL YARD.—J. S. Wilson &amp; Bro., the enterprising implement and seed men, have opened a coal yard on Second street, with office on Bank Row.

ON or about the first of October Mr. Rufus Stivers will reopen the Bourbon Bowling Alleys in the old rooms next to Ford &amp; Co. Mr. Stivers has purchased an entire new outfit of pins and balls, and will have one of the best equipped alleys in the State. Further particulars of the opening will be given later on.

MISS JENNIE KATE PURNELL has secured the position of vocal teacher in the Synodical College, at Fulton, Mo. The Fulton Telegraph says: "Miss Jennie Kate Purnell, of Paris, Ky., delighted a large congregation at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening with a solo."

ALEXANDER HOGELEND, the well-known Curfew agitator, of Louisville, is in Lexington and will make another attempt to have a Curfew law passed by the General Council. The law would be a good one for Paris. Any number of small boys can be seen on our streets at all hours of the night, when they should be at home.

DR. A. L. ABBOTT, a successful physician of Grant County, has been forced to cease practicing medicine on account of not having a diploma. "Doc" Fretwell, too, should be handled, as he is killing about fifty (lambs) a week, but claims he can show a sheep-skin.

ATTORNEYS KERR, of Lexington, Pendleton, of Winchester, and Stitt, of this city, were engaged here Wednesday taking depositions in case of the Commonwealth vs. the Cumberland Telephone Company. Attorney T. F. Edekin, of Frankfort, was present representing the defense.

A VIRGINIA preacher's wife has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was a Robin, her second Sparrow and the present lesser half bears the name of Quayle. There are now two young Robins, one Sparrow and three Quayles in the family. One grandfather was a Swan and another was a Crane.—Interior Journal.

The old woman was certainly a bird. The Lexington Democrat, in speaking of an ex-Parisian, says: Colonel Sam Meglone has secured the services of Willard Hutchison of Paris, as window dresser. Mr. Hutchison is one of the very best window dressers in this part of the State and will doubtless prove of service to Mr. Meglone in his new and handsome store. The young man has for some time past been with Mitchell, Cassell &amp; Baker in the same capacity. He commenced work with his new employer on Wednesday.

Awarding of Sewer Contracts.

At the special meeting of the City Council Monday night the several contracts pertaining to the building of sewers in Paris were let.

There were five bids on the construction contract. The work was awarded to G. O. Tenney, of South Carolina.

There were three bids on the sewer pipe contract, P. Bannan, of Louisville, being the successful competitor.

Sewers will be laid at present on Main street from Stoner creek to 14th street; on High street from 4th to 14th; on Pleasant street from 2d to 12th; on Duncan Avenue from the bridge to Pleasant street; on 2d street; on 6th street; on 7th, on 11th, and on 14th street—a total of nearly three miles. There will also be a separate system of storm water sewers laid at the same time.

The main sanitary sewer will be of 12-inch pipe. The main surface water sewer 34-inch pipe.

The job will consist of 76 man-holes, 16 lamp-holes, 60 gutter inlets, 150 yards of masonry, 50 yards of concrete, about 5,843 cubic yards of rock excavation, and about 8,669 cubic yards of earth excavation. Houston creek will be crossed by a stone viaduct 12 feet high and 106 feet long and containing two arches each having a span of 40 feet.

Mr. Tenney bid $2.40 for all rock and 30 cents for all earth excavation, and it is estimated that his portion of the contract will amount to $22,711.00. In addition the City will furnish all pipe, which will cost probably $4,000.00.

The right of way through the G. G. White property cost $750, and the fee of the engineer will be 4 per cent. of the cost of the work.

The job complete will cost between $28,000 and $29,000.

Mr. Tenney will begin work on September 16th and expects to complete the work in five months. He is a gentleman of large experience in such work and will no doubt execute the contract in a manner entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

The bid of A. L. Patterson &amp; Co., of Norfolk, Va., for the work awarded to Mr. Tenney was $24,284.35, and the next lowest bid was that of Messrs. Cain &amp; Woods, Paris, Ky., $29,500.

The City requires of Mr. Tenney a bond of $7,000, with a Surety Company as surety for the faithful and prompt performance of the contract.

WANTED.—One hundred thousand bushels of bluegrass seed.

Indians on the Trail.

The following members of Maumee Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, went over to Richmond Tuesday night to do the instituting work for the new tribe which had been organized in that city: Messrs. McCarthy, Broomhall, Chambers, Remington, Spears, Cooley, Lyons, Caughlin, Overby, Howard, Downey, Stark, McDermott, Godman, Current, Owen, Paton and Porter. They report a royal time given them by the Richmond boys. The new tribe is composed of some of the best people in Richmond, and there is every prospect of it being one of the banner tribes of the State.

The American Red Man, published at Louisville, in speaking of the instituting of the new tribe at Georgetown, says: "The floor work could hardly have been improved upon, and yet it was given by the Degree Team of Maumee Tribe at Paris, which is one of the youngest tribes in the State."

TALK to T. Porter Smith about fire insurance.

The Odeon Players.

To-night will mark the first appearance here of the Odeon Players, with Miss Mannheimer in the principal roles, in a highly interesting double bill—"Nance Oldfield," which is her own adaptation of Charles Reade's famous story, "Art a Dramatic Tale," and Henry Arthur Jones' charming comedy, "The Deacon." Miss Mannheimer will appear in the title role of the first named comedy, and as Mrs. Bollingbrook in "The Deacon." This exquisite love story is interspersed with a wealth of dramatic and love incidents. It was first produced at the Shaftesbury Theatre, London, England, by the well-known English actor, Mr. E. S. Willard, some seven or eight years ago, and during his American tour last season it proved the hit of his well selected repertoire. Miss Mannheimer has surrounded herself with a capable cast of players, and the supporting members are graduates from the Dramatic Department of the Cincinnati College of Music, of which she is the principal director. Each and every member has been cast in roles which best suits their ability, and it is safe to predict that no more enjoyable evening could be spent at the Opera House this season.

The costuming is said to be gorgeous, and as this will be the society event of the season, the capacity of our charming Opera House will no doubt be tested to its fullest extent. Popular prices will prevail. Seats can be secured at Brooks' drug store.

Will Sail the Ocean Blue.

Dr. G. M. (Mack) Brooks, of this city has received notification from the Navy Department at Washington, that he has been appointed to a position in the Medical Department of the United States Navy, and will be assigned to duty on one of the war vessels. He will receive his commission and enter upon his duties about the middle of October. The many friends of Mr. Brooks in this city will miss his smiling countenance and pleasant companionship, but will rejoice with him in his good luck, and hope some day to have the pleasure of calling him Admiral Brooks.

MRS. L. B. CONWAY has returned from the East, after visiting different cities, where she purchased an unusual large and complete stock of fall hats, trimmings, etc. Her store will be stocked with the latest and most fashionable designs in millinery of all descriptions, and the ladies of our community will do well to see her display, which will more than duplicate any of her previous efforts. There are three things that are essential in feminine headwear and these are taste, style and comfort, and this is adhered to in all respects by Mrs. Conway.
